Bill
Dear Mr. Casey:

Constituents have been in touch with me expressing their concern about news reports that U. S. intelligence agencies provided assistance after World War II to Klaus Barbie, a high-ranking officer of the Nazi party.

These reports do need to be fully addressed, and I would appreciate having your comments as to just what involvement the CIA had in this particular case.

Sincerely yours,

Mr. William J. Casey, Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505
